I'm a Welsh full-stack designer and illustrator who loves helping people leap ahead. I love creating fantastic content for fantastic people, from pencil to pixel and pride myself on making great things that do great things for the people I work with. I sweat the small stuff - every element from image, type and even sound and music, is paramount. But if I'm not pushing pencils or pixels, I'm playing D&D or writing adventures under the alias froginajar.

How can I help?

Considerable experience at logo design, print design, illustration and web design with Photoshop, Illustrator and Indesign.

Considerable experience with front-end web development with CSS, CSS3, jQuery, JS, RequireJS, HTML, HTML5, Jade/Pug, Bourbon Neat, Sass, SCSS, Susy and Compass (through Codekit), Github and Wordpress. Also considerable experience in prototyping with Invision and intermediate experience with Tumblr theming, email development and email image asset generation with Sketch.

Intermediate experience with motion graphics and video editing with After Effects CS6, Adobe Premiere and Final Cut Pro.
